Injured officer waits 45 minutes for help

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH

Area police authorities are investigating a delay of 45 minutes in reaching a Norfolk & Western Railroad detective injured Tuesday night.

Joe Dobson Jr. slipped and fell down a flight of 15 stairs as he attempted to return fire after his bullet-proof vest stopped three bullets aimed at his back. Dobson laid there unable to move, until his relief man arrived.

DOBSON SAID he was investigating an unlocked door on the east side of the McKinley Yard office, off Route 203 near Madison, at 11:25 p.m. Tuesday, when an unknown subject began shooting at him.

P seeks to cut gas rates

By GARY SCHNEIDER

Press-Record Editor
Illinois Power Company Tuesday announced that it is requesting a rate change which will reduce natural gas rates to industries designed to make the IP territory a more attractive place for industry to move and stay.

If approved by the Illinois Commerce Commission, the new rates may have some effect on residential gas bills, but higher fixed charges are likely to offset much of the reduction in natural gas charges for residences.

THE REQUESTED reduction for natural gas rates is about 2.9 percent, or about $13.9 million annually. However, for residential customers, an increase of approximately $2 a month would be assessed for "monthly facility or fixed charges for more accurately the cost of providing natural gas service." That would rise from $7.50 a month to $9.50 a month.

Bills also are affected by a "purchased natural gas adjustment" previously approved by the ICC which allows utilities to pass on increases in the price of natural gas directly to the customers.

According to Al Adams of IP's rate division, the company estimates that the net effect of the proposed lower rate for natural gas,

Industries get a break, but little aid for homeowners

the increase in the fixed monthly charge and the purchased gas adjustment will increase customers' bills by approximately $2 a month for seven months of the year and will reduce the bills the remaining five months of the year.

Adams estimates that November 1984 bills for the average household would drop 66-cents per household compared to November 1983, and the decline would be $2.24 in December, $6.52 in January, $5.95 in February and $3 in March, compared to the same months of the previous year.

THEREFORE, if Adams' predictions are true, the average household would pay $4.39 less per year than under the current rate plan, even though the bill increases $2 per month during the seven warmest months of the year.

Explaining that the rates will reduce during the peak heating season, another IP spokesman said, "That's exactly the opposite of what the ICC wanted." The ICC has encouraged the highest utility rates during the peak seasons to encourage efficiency and a reduction in energy use. Electricity, for example, is higher in the summer, during the air conditioning season, than in the winter.

According to a news release from IP, the reductions to industrial and commercial customers, ranging from 2.5 percent to 11.7 percent are "an attempt to retain existing large industrial customers and discourage them from switching to an alternate fuel, and to keep the company's natural gas rates competitive in attracting new industry to its territory."

"ENERGY COSTS are a very important factor considered by major industry in locating new plants. These revisions to industrial gas rates will make Illinois Power Co. competitive in attracting new industry and jobs to Illinois. The retention of large industrial gas customers will result in lower rates for all customers, including residential customers," the news release says.

The requested reduction in the price of natural gas was made possible by three factors, the news release said: the improvement in cash flow requirements due to recent improvements made to the calculation of the Purchased Gas Adjustment; a reduction in operating and maintenance expense resulting from cost reduction efforts by the company, and an improvement in the general economy providing increased sales of natural gas.

THE PROPOSED reduction in rates for natural gas is designed to keep gas rates competitive with alternate fuels such as coal and oil. The increase in the monthly facility charge, on the other hand, is designed to more accurately reflect the cost of providing natural gas service, including meters, meter reading and other fixed services, a spokesman said.

For the approximately 11,000 IP customers who do not heat their homes with gas, the proposed rates, if adopted by the ICC, would increase their monthly rates by $24 a year. For the remaining approximately 338,000 customers who do use gas for heating, the net effect should be a reduction of about $4.39 a year.

The new rates are subject to approval by the commerce commis-

2 keep jobs; suspension try fails

By BILL WINTER

Continuation of the jobs of Harold E. Hillmer and Boyd D. McCommis apparently was questioned at Tuesday night's Granite City School Board meeting, but the challenge evaporated by the time the board adjourned at 1 a.m.

In another matter, Board President David Partney sought to have school employee suspended without pay, but failed; Roberts' motion died for lack of a second.

THE SUSPENSION attempt was outlined in a statement read by Partney. The individual he targeted was not present and could not be reached for comment Wednesday.

Roberts' Rules of Order were cited earlier in the meeting when doubt was cast by part of the board on whether a Dec. 6 vote to combine four jobs into two could later be altered, as was done March 27.

Treasurer Kelly Hogan said the rules require that reconsideration of a topic take place at the same meeting or the following meeting, not more than 10 days later.

School Attorney William Schooley agreed to prepare a written opinion by next week but later Tuesday night he provided an oral opinion that rescinding can be done at any time and on a motion by any board member.

MINUTES SHOWED the consolidation was rescinded, not reconsidered.

Reconsideration is brought up by one of those voting in favor of the original motion and must occur promptly.

Employee Relations Administrator Hillmer and Custodial Supervisor McCommis were two of the four administrators referred to in the board majority's December job reduction move, which was to become effective next month.

At the March 27 board session, the question of terminating Hillmer and McCommis was put to a vote.

IT FAILED 4-3, being opposed by Monroe Worthen, Dewey Melton, Alvin Crider and Thomas Miosky. Termination effective June 30 was favored by Hogan, Partney and Mrs. Ruth Lahr.

Crider, one of those supporting the December action, then voted March 27 to rescind the Dec. 6 vote combining Hillmer's role with that of Personnel Administrator Terry M. Salem and McCommis' job with that of Ronald Landman, director of buildings and grounds.

Rescinding prevailed by 4-3 with the same majority of Worthen, Melton, Crider and Miosky.

With Hogan raising the question Tuesday night, Partney also said he was concerned that there might have been a violation of Roberts Rules.

ATTORNEY SCHOOLEY noted that the rules were adopted by the board in 1979 and also have been enacted by the state.

Hogan said the purpose of limiting reconsideration to a certain time period is to prevent a governing body from following a pattern of frequently changing the decisions it already has made.

Schooley said he understood the point being raised but wanted to find the references in the minutes to help determine whether the March action was appropriate.

PARTNEY SUGGESTED that a

Thunderbirds, SR-71 highlight Scott AFB open house Sunday

By PATRICK FOLEY

A performance by the U.S. Air Force precision flying team, the Thunderbirds, and two aerial passes by the SR-71 Blackbird, the world's fastest and highest flying airplane, will highlight the annual open house at Scott Air Force Base near Belleville on Sunday.

The event is free and open to the public. Gates open at 9 a.m.

THIS YEAR'S open house promises to be a jam-packed day of activities, with highlights in displays, ground displays and exhibitions for the entire family.

Demonstrations of military sentry dogs, an aerial display of radio-controlled model airplanes, marching by the Scott AFB drill team, a concert by the Air Force Band of Mid-America and a parachuting demonstration also are scheduled for the day. The American Legion's "Das Blas Kapelle Band," a folk German group, will also perform.

In addition to these activities, more than 40 military and local organizations will have displays. These include displays by a square dance club, plastic model enthusiasts and an aviation museum. There will also be puppet shows at 10:15 a.m. and 1 p.m.

FOOD, BEVERAGES and souvenirs will be available throughout the day.

Military and civilian aircraft on display will include the gigantic C-5 Galaxy, the last operational C-124 Globemaster in the world, the Strategic Air Command's KC-10 Extender aerial refueling plane and the Air Force's newest plane, the C-21A.

The schedule of events throughout the day follows:

9:00 a.m.—radio-controlled model airplanes demonstration, military sentry dogs demonstration

9:45—flyover by Missouri Air National Guard's F-4 Phantom fighters

10:00—arrival of the Thunderbirds

10:25—mock aerial refueling of F-4 Phantom by KC-135 Stratotanker.

10:40—a McDonnell Douglas F-15 Eagle performs an arrival show.

10:45—precision marching by Scott AFB drill team.

11:00—aerial display by Britain's Royal Air Force Nimrod anti-submarine plane.

11:30—two aerial passes by the SR-71 Blackbird.

Noon—concert by Air Force Band of Mid-America.

1:15—Scott AFB drill team performs again.

1:30—parachuting demonstration by a Combat Control

Team followed by another demonstration of the military sentry dogs.

1:40—Das Blas Kapelle Band performs.

3:00—the Thunderbirds begin their 40-minute performance, climaxing the day's events.

A FOLDER, detailing the entire day's activities and a map of the flight line, will be available to all visitors.

Scott AFB is located two miles south of I-64 on Illinois Route 158 which is approximately 5 1/2 miles east of Route 159 (St. Clair Square).

Arriving at Scott AFB for their performance during the base's annual open house on Sunday, the USAF Thunderbirds will be flying new, state-of-the-art F-16 fighter planes.

The flight demonstration team, one of the most impressive recruiting tools of the Air Force, have been flying T-38 Talon training planes, since 1974, in an effort to cut costs. But since the tragic accident that destroyed the team in 1982, the Thunderbirds were reconstituted with the new General Dynamics F-16s, the eighth different plane used by the team.

DESPITE THEIR higher price tag and operational costs, the Air Force is still realizing cost savings because the planes now used by the Thunderbirds are commissioned and combat-ready, prepared to do battle on a moment's notice.

Congressman Melvin Price (D-21st Ill. District), chairman of the House Armed Services Committee, says "the demonstrations (by the Thunderbirds) take on unprecedented relevance because the planes are not only of the type we would use in combat, they are the planes we would use in combat."

Since their first public demonstration in 1953, the Thunderbirds have traveled throughout the U.S. and 45 countries in the free world. They have logged more than 2,333 performance hours more than 170 million people.

THE SQUADRON began its demonstrations flying the F-84 Thunderjet then switched to the F-85F Thunderstreak in 1955. Both were subsonic aircraft. In 1956 the squadron flew its first supersonic aircraft, the F-100C Super Sabre. This made the Thunderbirds the first supersonic demonstration team in the world.

The team switched to the F-105B in 1964, but this plane was only used for six performances before the squadron returned to the F-100 "D" model. The Super Sabre, the most-used aircraft by the team, was used for a total of 1,111 shows.

In 1969, the Thunderbirds flew the new F-4E Phantom II for the first time at the graduating ceremonies for the U.S. Air Force Academy. These were flown until 1974, when the team moved to the fuel-efficient T-38A Talons.

Regional funding is sought

By SUSAN SIGNAIGO-WEICH

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler told city council members Tuesday night that the money necessary to pay the city's share of a 75-25 percent state grant for sewer regionalization will probably have to be raised through a bond issue. Schuler said the money necessary for the city's share would be "somewhere in the neighborhood of $400,000."

Budget GC office of attorney general

Funds for regional offices in Granite City and nine other sites were added to the attorney general's budget request last week by the Illinois House of Representatives.

Attorney General Neil Hartigan, a Chicago Democrat and former lieutenant governor, has proposed a network of "full service" offices around the state. One is operating in Rockford, another is being established this week in Peoria and a third is in partial operation at Quincy.

Opp. A SUCCESSFUL amendment by State Rep. Sam Wolf of Granite City allocated $225,000 to create a Madison-St. Clair counties office in Granite City.

The Rockford regional office, which is expected to cost $250,000 annually, is handling senior citizen, consumer, environmental and other matters.

Also named in the budget legislation are Rock Island, Lake County, LaSalle County, Mount Vernon, Macon County, Jackson County, Franklin County, Will County and Kankakee. Most carry a $225,000 listing.

Opp. HEADING EACH regional office of the Illinois attorney general will be a full-time attorney. Michael Meehan of Granite City currently serves as a part-time special assistant attorney general for consumer complaints, responding to them at various locations in this area.

I-255 completion may be expedited

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

The "good news" is that the new five-year Illinois road program unveiled last week speeds completion of Interstate 255 here, local officials note.

The "bad news" is that the accelerated program depends on prompt scheduling of auto exhaust testing in Madison-St. Clair counties to avoid loss of federal highway funds, state officials say. Many persons assert that such tests are not needed in order for this area to meet air quality goals.

The I-255 project that will link with circumferential I-270 is seen as being completed up to a year earlier than previously estimated.

In fiscal 1985 (July 1984 to June 1985), statewide Interstate construction and rehabilitation will total 96 miles at a cost of $174 million. New construction will include four miles of six-lane pavement and bridges on I-255 at a cost of $47 million.

For the remaining four-year period, 308 miles of aging Interstates are to be rehabilitated for $528 million.

The four-year program also includes $183 million in Interstate construction—$128 million to complete I-255, plus funds for such tasks as adding lanes to I-280 in DuPage County. Also listed is construction of welcome centers at stateline locations as part of an expanded tourism program.

Southwestern Illinois road and bridge building and repair work in the year starting July 1 will amount to $145 million. This will increase to $375 million over the five years, Illinois Transportation Secretary John Kramer said.

Ten-county District Eight allocations include:

—$45 million to resurface and improve Interstates 55, 70, 44 and 50-70, with part of this spent to rehabilitate the Poplar Street Bridge over the Mississippi River.

—$28 million to finish relocating U.S. Highway 51 between Lebanon and Carlyle and extending it toward I-64.

—$26 million to rehabilitate the U.S. 67 bridge from Alton to North St. Louis County.

—And $16 million to improve the Martin Luther King Veterans Bridge between St. Louis and East St. Louis.

I-255 progress has been linked to regional efforts to promote commercial, industrial and employment expansion. A 14-mile section from the new Jefferson Barracks Bridge near Dupo to Illinois Route 15 may be finished late this year.

Ill. Rt. 157 at Bell Line Road in Collinsville is to be expanded and improved for $864,000 during the next five years and a mile of Rt. 111 in Washington Park will be widened and resurfaced at a cost of $1,500,000.

Kramer said the $900 million Illinois road plan for 1994-95 utilizes $38 million in federal revenue, including about $100 million in U.S. funds subject to air pollution progress in the Chicago area and Metro East.

Another $340 million will come from such state sources as gasoline taxes and license fees and $24 million will be derived from local sources.

Governor James R. Thompson said the five-year plan totals $4.35 billion, adding that it will reduce the backlog of rough roads and unsafe bridges and also generate added construction jobs.

"With major rehabilitation of 1,025 miles, construction of 42 miles of new highway and rebuilding or replacement of 500 bridges, we will move ahead as quickly as possible to upgrade the road network so vital to the overall economy," Thompson said.

"Increased state and federal revenues are enabling us to undertake programs of such scope that by the end of this 1984 construction season more than 3,000 miles of roads and 850 bridges will have been improved in some way or put under construction."

"We have virtually doubled the accomplishments from the same time last year. Additional money from highway user fees is allowing Illinois not only to match every federal aid dollar to which we are entitled, but even to take advantage of $19 million in U.S. revenue that other states were unable to match and had to forfeit."

"The federal highway program is a matching program—for every dollar we can provide we will get back an average of four dollars."

"And we are aggressively going after federal discretionary funds. Illinois recently received $103 million in discretionary funding, which is one-sixth of the nationwide total."

"In addition, the new state revenue allows us to repair many highways that are not eligible for federal repair funds."

"I must add the warning that failure to approve legislation currently before the General Assembly to institute an inspection and maintenance program could bring about sanctions from the federal government, already initiated against our state, totaling $100 million."

Lt. Gov. George H. Ryan said Thursday the potential loss to this region is $30 million.

Not affected by the sanction threat are fiscal 1985 projects of repairing the I-270 bridge at Mitchell for $486,000 and a new deck and rehabilitation of the Rt. 111 railroad bridge north of Rt. 162 at a cost of $1,501,000.

Tuition policy on state officials

Responding to criticism of big tuition reimbursement to prominent administration officials, Gov. James R. Thompson last week instituted a uniform policy for education tuition payments for employees under his control.

The policy on directors, deputy directors and assistant directors for the state to reimburse for tuition and lab fees only, with up to 80 percent paid upon satisfactory completion of a course, possibly increased to 100 percent if approved by the governor's chief of staff.

Michael Fryzel, head of the Department of Financial Institutions, billed the state $4,500 over the last two years for law courses.

Michael Witte, director of the Department of Energy and Natural Resources, and Richard Carlson, deputy Insurance Department director, are classmates in a two-year master's degree program at the University of Illinois; each has billed the state $6,100 for the first year of the program.

Reimbursement is to be limited to courses directly related to the person's work or that would improve his current job skills, but will not be more than 18 months after completing a course are to refund any payments to the state.

Those who leave state service less than 18 months after completing a course are to refund any payments to the state.

KENNEL COUGH

The term "kennel cough" refers to certain contagious canine respiratory diseases that are common among dogs that are confined together. It occurs most often during hot, humid weather. If you board your dog, show him, or keep a number of dogs in your household, there is a chance your pet might contract the disease.

The primary symptom is a dry, hacking cough which generally appears after exercise. In more severe cases, this cough is accompanied by watery eyes, a runny nose, and a moderate fever. If any of these symptoms appear, treatment should be sought immediately if left to run its course, kennel cough can develop into pneumonia. Though there is no cure for the disease, your veterinarian can prescribe medication to alleviate symptoms and prevent pneumonia and other serious complications.

In order to minimize the risk of your dog contracting the disease, try to keep him separated from others known to have it. Also, if you must board your dog, try to pick a kennel that requires a parainfluenza vaccine before animals are taken in. This provides the dogs with a safe, temporary protection.

Venice council learns water line extension costs $6,145

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

The Illinois-American Water Company would charge $6,145 to run a water main extension across Klein Street to the opposite sidewalk, fronting the Biassell Street Apartments, in order to install a fire hydrant there, Venice aldermen were advised at Tuesday night's city council meeting.

In a letter to Third Ward Alderman John Ervin, chairman of the aldermanic fire committee, Bobby Patton, Illinois-American distribution chairman, said the company also would require a city resolution and the deposit of the entire amount of the cost.

He also noted the $6,154 charge is for the main extension only and installation of the fire hydrant, itself, would be at the utility firm's expense.

"It looks to me like they just threw us out of the ballpark," Mayor Tyrone Echols commented to the council members.

The letter referred to an inquiry from the city council, which earlier discussed installing a new fire hydrant closer to the apartment complex, after concern was expressed by Fourth Ward Alderman Victor Valentine Sr.

Valentine told the council at its last session that the nearest fire hydrants, presently located across the roadway on Circle Drive and Meridian Street, are too far away from the apartment buildings.

At that time, he was reassured by Venice Fire Chief Bill Smith that his department had sufficient hoses to reach all the apartment complex, but that he also would like to see an additional fire plug in the area. After the Illinois-American letter was read, there were no further comments from the aldermen.

Progress is being made in obtaining equipment for the new Venice Senior Citizen's Center and also in the acquisition of a van-bus for use by the seniors, Mayor Echols reported.

A tentative date for a ribbon-cutting ceremony at the center will not be set until furnishings are secured and specific items on the structure have been completed, the mayor advised.

"There is no use having a ribbon cutting as there is nothing in there yet. We may not get all the things we've asked for, but we hope they will come up with most of it," the mayor commented.

He noted the items requested from the Southwestern Illinois Area Agency on Aging cost nearly $6,000.

Second Ward Alderman George Mangiaracino commented on the number of dogs running loose in the town.

"I'm a bit leery about these dogs since I've been bitten," the alderman said, noting that he was recently bitten by a dog on both legs while he was walking on Klein Street.

Although he commiserated with the alderman, Mayor Echols said, "You are chairman of the police committee and I think you could see the dog catcher about this (situation)."

"I believe you can impress the facts upon him better than anyone under the circumstances," Mayor Echols said to Alderman Mangiaracino. Venice Police Sergeant Joe Meehan also is the city dog catcher.

In other business: First Ward Alderman John Fleig reminded residents that city licenses for dogs are due June 1, with a vaccination certificate required to purchase a license.

He also asked City Comptroller

Roseann Koeller to compile a list of persons with outstanding repair permits, those dwellings that have not been brought up to standard or inspected and the names of persons to which occupancy permits have been granted.

"I believe we should bring it (information) out on the floor. We've got the ordinances and we're not doing anything about it," he said, referring to dwellings now being occupied without inspection and authorization.

At the last meeting, Fleig brought to the council's attention instances of dwellings housing families when the only permit issued to the owner authorized him to make repairs prior to occupancy.

City Attorney Lawrence Hartman reported South-Western Cable TV, Ltd., which was granted a cable TV franchise by the city at the last meeting, is moving on the project and has someone surveying the area this week.

Mayor Echols said he has not yet received any information about summer work programs for young people. He did note, however, the street department has started patching holes in the pavement.

Kenneth Mueller, a resident, sought repairs to curbing in the 600 block of Washington Avenue, a condition that causes water to come out into the street when ever it rains, he said.

"The curb popped up about 14 years ago and I think that something should be done in 14 years," he commented.

Mayor Echols noted there are several similar situations in town and stated, "All I can say is that I'll have them (street department) take a look at it and try to assemble some idea of the cost of repairs."

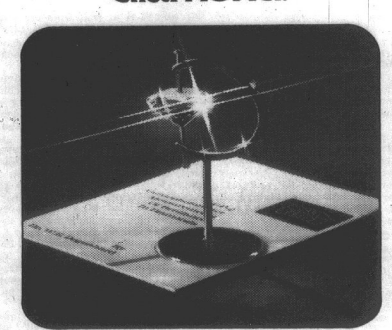

not been told of the shooting. Frederick Steiger, defense attorney, told the jury that Getz was home with his parents at the time of the assault. He also said Getz will take the state in his own defense during the trial.

Mayor Schuler opposed to tax increase

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler said Tuesday that he is not in favor of a real estate tax increase that may come about as a result of an appellate court decision. The decision would require Madison County to pay back interest on taxes collected from the various taxing districts.

"The facts are in and the time has come to decide whether taxes should be raised or not raised to comply with an Illinois appellate court decision that each taxing district in Illinois be paid interest on the tax monies that were invested by the county treasurer," he said in a prepared statement. "This could amount to as much as $4 million and would result in a pretty big tax increase."

"My vote is no! If the county were to pay back $4 million, they would have to raise real estate taxes, and nobody wants or needs a tax increase. It's not as if the school board, or the city, or the park board were counting on the money."

"The county treasurer invested tax money that he collected and put the interest earned in the county's general fund. The state's attorney told him to put it there and that's the way it's been done for a long, long time."

"The appellate court recently said that the state's attorney was wrong, that interest earned on tax money should go to the taxing districts. And that's fine — from now on. But we don't need a tax increase that nobody wants — to take money from one pocket and put it in another pocket."

"I cannot support that kind of logic. I urge you to vote in favor of a motion to notify Madison County Chairman Nelson Hagnauer, that we oppose this kind of tax increase." The statement was approved by the council.

GC man on trial in sexual abuse case

James B. Getz, 33, of Granite City, went on trial Tuesday in St. Clair Circuit Court on charges of home invasion, aggravated indecent liberties with a child and deviate sexual assault.

The alleged victim, an 13-year-old girl, testified Tuesday that she was babysitting in Belleville with a 3-year-old girl when a man she identified as Getz came to the door with a white nylon stocking over his face and asked for a woman. He then entered, ordered the 3-year-old and her into the bathroom, placed a pillow case over her head and forced her to perform several sexual acts, she alleged.

She also alleged that her assailant forced her to drink water and urine from the toilet and ordered her to have sexual contact with the 3-year-old.

Police allege Getz was shot when he ran from the home. The jury has

Campaign helps to educate parents about drug abuse

A public information campaign to help educate parents about the health dangers of illicit drug use by their children, has been launched in Illinois.

ALLEGES MAN GRABS WOMAN AROUND NECK

Ronald D. Pile, 43, of 2001 Washington Ave., was taken into custody at a tavern in the 1500 block of East 20th Street during the weekend and charged with battery. He was released after posting a $52 cash bond.

Pile was arrested on a complaint signed by Debra Saunders, 2003 Washington Ave., who said she went to the man's apartment and an argument ensued, with Pile allegedly putting his hands around her neck. The woman had bruises and redness on her neck, the officer noted.

The program, which uses the resources of 120,000 pharmacists across the country, was created by McNeil Pharmaceutical and the Johnson and Johnson Family of Companies. It is called Pharmacists Against Drug Abuse (PADA).

PADA is built around a free brochure, "The Kinds of Drugs Kids are Getting Into." The program focuses on alerting the public to the dangers of such commonly abused "gateway" drugs as marijuana and alcohol. The pamphlets will be available at pharmacies throughout the Quad-City area.

According to Dr. Carlton E. Turner, director of the White House Abuse Policy Office, "These are the two substances young people are most likely to use in entering the drug scene."

The program also focuses on cocaine, the fastest growing drug of abuse in America.

Nancy Reagan, the White House Drug Abuse Policy Office, ACTION—the Federal Volunteer Agency, The National Parent's Resource Institute for Drug Education (PRIDE), and the National Federation of Parents for Drug-Free Youth.

SPEAKING before media conferences in New York and Los Angeles to launch the program nationwide, Dr. Turner emphasized that more than one third of all youth in America use illegal drugs and one out of every 16 high school seniors use marijuana every day.

Other persons participating in the announcement of the program are: Michael Landon, national spokesperson for PADA; Margaret Heckler, secretary of Health and Human Services; Thomas W. Pauken, director of ACTION; Jack E. O'Brien, president of McNeil Pharmaceutical and The Pharmacist Against Drug Abuse Foundation.

According to O'Brien, the program was developed using pharmacists because they are experts in drugs and an excellent source of information on drug abuse.

IN ADDITION to the free brochures available at participating pharmacies, the PADA program also includes a public service television and radio campaign featuring Michael Landon. This campaign encourages people to seek out their local pharmacist for information about drug abuse.

For parents who want further information about how to aid in the fight against drug abuse, there are two toll-free numbers that may be called: ACTION—PRIDE, the National Resource Center at 1-800-241-7946 or the National Federation of Parents for Drug-Free Youth at 1-800-554-KIDS.

YOUTH, 17, APPARENTLY HITS HEAD IN PLAYGROUND

Venice officers were called to a playground area in the 1100 block of Logan Avenue during the weekend and saw Tony Baker, 17, of 919 Franklin Ave., Madison, lying on the basketball court there.

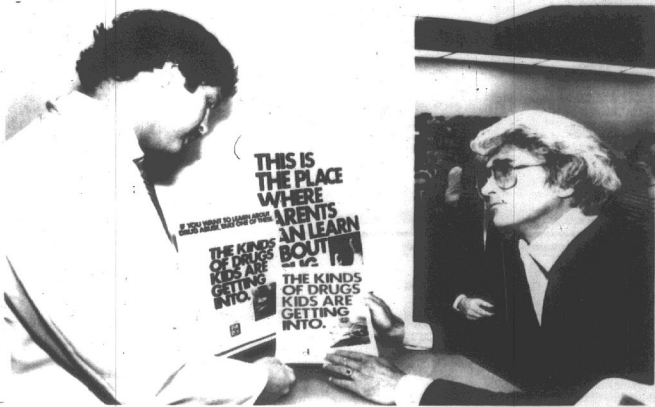

An ambulance and the Venice Fire Department emergency truck were summoned when the officers failed to get any response from the youth. A large crowd of onlookers had gathered around the injured youth, it was noted.

Baker allegedly resisted efforts by the firemen to assist him and some friends picked him up from the ground and moved him and then tried to place him in a squad car, but instead they stood the injured youth upright, reports noted.

An ambulance arrived at the scene and crew members tried to place Baker on a backboard, but he again allegedly fought those giving aid and jumped up. Baker finally was held down and put onto a stretcher and taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for treatment.

STEAL FROM REGISTER

A total of $290 was stolen from a cash register at the photography studio of Calvin Lazenby, 2820 Nameoki Road this month.

Johnson heads Venice Park Board

By RACHEL NEWSOME for the Press-Record

Arnold Johnson was picked last week to succeed the Rev. John Henry Williams as president of the Venice Park Board on recommendation from a May 3, personnel meeting.

Johnson is Rev. Williams' brother-in-law, which created a controversy when Rev. Williams first proposed Johnson being appointed to the board in January.

Johnson holds a degree in chemistry from Illinois State University and is employed by a clinical laboratory in St. Louis.

He attended elementary school in Venice and moved back to the area about three years ago. Johnson is a past president of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) College Branch at Illinois State University and has served as manager of the New Salem Baptist Church youth basketball team.

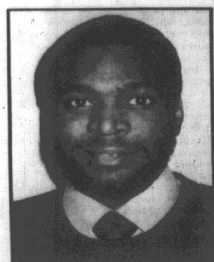

A proposed outline concerning the summer recreation program was explained by Charles Collins, recreational director, and accepted by the board. The program included hosting monthly dances at the recreation building using proceeds to purchase paint and draperies for the park district buildings. A new item, also included in the program, is a news release to be printed several times throughout the summer months advertising the park district's events. The release will be developed and dispersed by Collins.

Attorney Paul H. Laubner verified the use of the district's liability insurance in the event that the park district enters the summer recreation program with an agreement to use the school district facilities.

Representatives from the University of Illinois Cooperative Extension Center offered a training program to the CETA employees who will be participating as instructors in Venice's summer recreation program. The board approved the offer.

The board's next meeting will include the development of a tentative budget and the appointments of new committees.

ARNOLD JOHNSON

Early applications for passports urged

A 12 percent increase in passport applications this year and the approach of the vacation season are causing passport processing time to lengthen, according to Granite City Postmaster Jack D. Wilkins, whose post office is one of 900 across the U.S. that accept passport applications.

"Normally, an applicant can receive his or her passport within two or three weeks," Wilkins says. "But at this time of year, we ask travelers going abroad to apply for passports as soon as possible before their trip. They simply are taking unnecessary chances by delaying."

Applicants must have proof of citizenship, proof of identification and two 2x2-inch portrait-type photos. Passports for applicants over 18 are valid for ten years and cost $35 plus a $7 "execution fee" in most cases. Passports for applicants under 18 are valid for only five years — because applicants' appearance changes more rapidly — and cost $20 plus a $7 execution fee, if applicable. Passport applications are accepted Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Granite City Post Office, 2350 Madison Ave.

May widen role of special prosecutor

Bruce D. Locher, special prosecutor assigned to an investigation of assessment practices in Madison County, may also be asked to handle pending trials of the assessment supervisor and a zoning appeals board member.

That indication came late last week during a verbal exchange between State's Attorney Don Weber, who is seeking re-election, and Keith Jensen.

A former assistant state's attorney who was chosen by a judge as special prosecutor, Jensen was replaced in the latter post by Locher after Weber objected to Jensen's participation.

Jensen said Weber's troubles, including two misconduct indictments of the prosecutor, stem from him being overzealous and vindictive. Weber said he regards Jensen as opportunistic and overly ambitious.

Council concerned about upkeep of city vehicles

Discussion concerning bids on a street sweeper for the Granite City street department resulted in a heated outburst concerning maintenance at the department Tuesday.

Bids on the equipment were requested by the street department so Street Superintendent Mac Warfield would have an idea how much to allocate in his upcoming budget. Warfield said that both of the department's street sweepers are broken.

According to Warfield, one of the sweepers, which was purchased in 1977, has cost the city $22,390 thus far in repairs. He said the repairs that are needed now would total $2,500. "I've been told that if a street sweeper is more than four years old, it's not worth repairing."

After the bids were presented, Alderman Sam Whitmer said he feels the city should not buy the item until the new budget is passed. "Last year we had just enough eyes to pass the budget and I think this year there's going to be a little bit of hardball played when it comes to passing the budget," he said. "I want to know if some of these people are going to vote for these improvements and then turn around and not vote for the budget."

"When the discussion first began on these street sweepers, it was just to find out how much the price was, but now they're wanting to buy them."

Fourth Ward Alderman Carl Kittel suggested that the reason for the large amount of repairs on the street sweepers may be due to a lack of maintenance. Warfield emphasized that he is not trying to buy the items, but just wants to see the price. "This item will be in my budget," he said. "And as far as Alderman Kittel's comments, those street sweepers are cleaned and greased and oiled after every use. I resent you suggesting that these pieces of equipment aren't being maintained. You can come down to my office any day and see the records."

The council took no formal action after the discussion.

YMCA Day Camp starting soon

"The 1984 Tri-City Area YMCA Day Camp promises to be bigger and better than ever. Offering an all new Sports Camp, Fun and Adventure Camp, and Kiddie Camp for pre-schoolers enables boys and girls of all ages the opportunity for an exciting summer of fun to remember," according to Chris Carezza, YMCA program director.

The highlights of the season will be all the new Sports Camp, firing programs in soccer, wrestling, baseball, tennis and basketball. Each morning, from 9 o'clock to noon, the Sports Camp participants will go to their respective training sites with a top level instructor and specially trained counselors. Here they will receive individual and team instructions and an opportunity to practice their newly-acquired skills in game situations.

At noon they will join the "Fun and Adventure" campers for lunch and participate in regular camp activities for the rest of the afternoon.

"Fun and Adventure" camp has been greatly improved and highly developed to provide boys and girls a summer of fun activities. Children participate in such activities as swimming, arts and crafts, music, special events, sports and games, campcrafts, hiking and nature study. Most activities are at the Granite City Army Installation or nearby parks. "Fun and Adventure" camp runs Mondays thru Fridays from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

"Kiddie Kamp" is specially designed for 3 to 5-year-olds to give them their first experience at camp and prepare them for the adjustments of school. Counselors who genuinely care about children will share fun-filled sessions, Mondays through Fridays from 9 a.m. to noon, Carezza said. The different activities include arts, crafts, sing-alongs, nature study, camping skills and active games.

For working parents, the "Y" is offering a "Before and After" Fun Club, where the boys and girls can be dropped off at the "Y" as early as 7:30 a.m. and picked up as late as 6:00 p.m. For a nominal fee participants will be able to enjoy games, sports and art activities.

In addition, transportation will be available before and after camp. An additional fee of $2.50 will include pick-up and delivery for the entire week from Logan, Niedringhaus, Prohardt, Parkview, Wilson or Webster schools.

"YMCA camps offer high quality service at a very reasonable price," Carezza said. A one-week session of "Kiddie Kamp" costs $18 for YMCA members and $23 for non-members. A one-week session of "Fun and Adventure" camp costs $25 for YMCA members and $30 for non-members. A one-week session of Sports Camp costs $33 for members and $38 for non-members. All campers (excluding "Kiddie Kamp") will receive a free camp T-shirt.

"The YMCA believes that every child should experience the excitement of going to summer camp. In addition to having fun and learning in a natural world, meeting persons from other communities and recognizing their needs, and developing leadership skills, the YMCA program is dedicated to developing each camper's sense of self-confidence and appreciation of self-worth."

"If you are interested in providing your child with an exciting, worthwhile, meaningful and fun-filled experience, let us gain contact with you for more details and information for their great summer programs. This summer, the YMCA is a better place to be," Carezza concluded.

HIGH SCHOOL BURGLARIZED
Charles Sleptoe, counselor and coach at Madison High School, told police Monday night, that someone broke into the boys' locker room at the school, taking several items. Police said that apparently the subjects hid in the school until it was closed and then removed clamps and sections of the fence surrounding the lockers. All of the lockers were ransacked but the coaches' offices were not entered.

RIF Walk is Monday

The Reading Is Fundamental program (RIF) at Prather School is having its RIF Walk to the West Granite Fire Station on Monday, May 21. The walk will start at 9 o'clock and the whole school, both students and teachers, are being invited to walk with Cowboy RIF. The primary grade students are invited to dress as cowboys and cowgirls.

The RIF Walk is Mr. RIF and Prather School's major way of obtaining donation and buying the books which are given free to Prather students in the RIF program.

The Reading Is Fundamental program is a national non-profit organization that distributes free books to children to help them want to enjoy reading. RIF meets the needs of children to have their very own books. Having picked these books themselves, the children found the books interesting and special. Having these qualities present in a book assures it will be read, according to Joseph Haefner, RIF director.

We asked you what you wanted...

A year ago, St. Elizabeth Medical Center conducted a marketing survey in the Quad-Cities area to determine the kinds of health care services you wanted.

And this is what you told us.

- More coronary care services
- Up-dated maternity services, including a birthing room
- More pediatricians available in the emergency room
- More out-patient surgery facilities

Here's what we've done...

- Beginning in July, pediatricians on staff at Cardinal Glennon will be on duty in St. Elizabeth's Emergency Room to provide care for children.
- Construction has begun to expand our Surgette Unit (one-day out-patient surgery). When completed, this Unit will include private waiting for the family with the patient and an expanded preoperative area.

- We opened a new Coronary Care Unit, March 4, 1984. This Unit includes a Coronary Intensive Care and our award-winning Cardiac Rehabilitation Program.
- Our new birthing room was christened on March 23 of this year. In addition, we will soon be announcing the details of a new pre-paid maternity care package that will save expectant parents 30% of the usual cost.

And here's what people are saying about us.

"In the past three years, I had been in four different hospitals with no improvement, until I came to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. Proof of how well I am doing is right here in front of you."

—William Ingram, Madison

"While pregnant with my first child, my doctor recommended the maternity unit at St. Elizabeth's because it was the best in the area. And there, the hospital provided me with educational materials explaining how to care for newborns, and the nurses took the time to answer all my questions. I have worked as a nurse's aide in other hospitals and found the staff at St. Elizabeth's to be the most helpful. I like them a lot."

—Angelina Burroughs, Edwardsville

"I was working on an engine when the end of my little finger was severed. Instead of going to a St. Louis hospital, I was taken to St. Elizabeth's which was closer to home. Because of the emergency room's quick action and the excellent work of the surgeon, my finger was saved. I am now regaining full use of my finger. This is very important to me since one of my favorite pastimes is playing the guitar."

—Michael Knapp, Granite City

"I had a stroke three years ago, and wanted to give up. But the Stroke Rehabilitation staff wouldn't let me. Now I am completely able to care for myself. If it hadn't been for St. Elizabeth's, I'd probably be in a nursing home."

—Mildred Cassidy, Madison

"I hadn't been a patient in a hospital for over 30 years, so my visit to St. Elizabeth's was like being admitted for the first time. On my arrival, a very friendly volunteer met me at the door and took me to my room. On our way to the floor, Sister Stephanie, a speech therapist who had cared for my mother while she was recovering from a stroke, saw me and stopped to visit. From that moment on, I knew I would be treated well...and I was never disappointed."

—Marie Gordon, Granite City

Governor James R. Thompson met with top coal company executives and labor representatives last week to discuss his proposal for stepping up coal research and explore solutions to the problems associated with Illinois' high-sulfur coal.

"The acid rain proposals now under national discussion pose serious problems for Midwestern companies and this region's economy," Thompson said. "These solutions offer industry only two options — swallow the enormous costs of installing pollution control equipment or switch to low-sulfur coal. In either case, coal markets will be lost and the Midwest will suffer disproportionately."

"I have called this group to the Executive Mansion so that we can examine the situation and work together to find to find creative solutions to the problem facing the coal industry," Thompson said.

The governor said the administration's proposals are detailed in a special message sent to the General Assembly a week ago today. Included in the initiative are:

A request for $5 million in new Coal Development Bond Funds in Fiscal Year '85 to demonstrate innovative coal-use technologies.

A commitment to seek $15 million in new Coal Development Bond Funds in FY '85 to demonstrate innovative coal-use technologies.

A request for $5 million to develop cost-efficient precombustion desulfurization.

The governor told the coal officials and union representatives that since 1980, Illinois has committed $4 million to new coal research and more than $53 million for demonstrations of sulfur removal technologies, including the KilaGas project in Illinois, which is to supply energy to Illinois Power Co. using Illinois coal.

The Governor's Coal Bond Fund program, administered by the Department of Energy and Natural Resources, is currently providing support to six technology demonstrations, using more than $30.5 million in bond funds. Another $24 million is being provided in State Capital Development Funds. This represents the state's share in projects worth approximately $20 million at Illinois utilities, industries and institutions. In addition, the Illinois Coal Research Board was established in 1981 to coordinate and fund sulfur-removal research.

"The coal industry and the state can help each other on several fronts," Thompson said. "With cooperation in coal research, technology development and coal marketing, we'll make twice as much progress. And it is essential for this administration to hear from coal companies on how state government can assist them, both within Illinois' borders and in Washington D.C."

Thompson emphasized the need for moving quickly to find answers to the problems associated with using high-sulfur coal. "Under one national proposal being considered," Thompson said, "Illinois coal production would be cut by almost 40 million tons by the year 2000. That translates into 39,000 jobs lost and probably gone forever."

The Governor's Executive Conference on Illinois Coal, which convened at the Executive Mansion, was the first meeting of its kind between the administration and coal officials.

POSTS BAIL ON WARRANT

Kaseell Jennings, 40, of 205 Hill St. was freed on $750 bail last week after being booked on a 1983 Granite City warrant alleging failure to appear on a petty theft charge.

Book motorist on DUI in downtown GC

An auto heading north in the 1800 block of Edison Avenue crossed over the center line and forced a south-bound squad car off the roadway during the weekend, an officer alleged.

He turned the police vehicle around and followed the auto, alleging that the driver again crossed the center line and the car weaved from side to side.

Driver of the vehicle, Timothy P. Cox, 18, of 2124 Dewey Ave., was stopped at 19th Street and Niedringhaus Avenue. He agreed to take a breathalyzer test and was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol and improper lane usage. Cox was released at 9:30 a.m. Saturday after posting a $102 cash bond. A passenger in the vehicle, John R. Krug, 17, of 2406 Illinois Ave., was charged with a curfew violation.

APPEARANCE WARRANT

While making a traffic stop at Nameoki Road and Leonard Avenue last week, officers served a warrant alleging failure to appear in court on a retail theft charge on Tina M. Gray, 22, of 1704 Cleveland Blvd. She was later released after posting a $152 cash bond.

Madigan aiding taxing bodies on Mandates Act

House speakers Michael J. Madigan last week told local government officials of a new policy designed to obtain compliance with the State Mandates Act.

"Local bodies throughout the state have effectively voiced concern over being required to implement programs created by the state without receiving the necessary funding," Madigan said.

"This year an effort was initiated to amend the constitution to require a three-fifths vote to pass laws which require expenditures of local funds for programs required by the state."

"While that effort was not successful, we have all become aware of the real problems and I intend to initiate a three-point program to help ease the problem."

The speaker's program provides:

1. All bills currently on the House calendar which require a state Mandates Act not will be held until the note is filed.

2. Local government associations will be provided a report on legislation to which the mandates act may apply.

3. Legislators will be asked to withdraw a language or amendments seeking to exempt a particular bill from the mandates act.

"The act was created to provide protection to local government and taxpayers so that costly programs are not forced on them without funding. This is an important function and we should do everything possible to see to it this is accomplished," Madigan said.

BREAK INTO MACHINES

Two video game machines in the Plaza Laundromat and one in the Game Room, both located at the Plaza Shopping Center, 2420 Nameoki Road, were broken into last week and an unknown amount of change was stolen.

ARREST GC COUPLE IN RESTAURANT PARKING LOT

Called to a restaurant parking lot in the 1500 block of Johnson Road late last week, officers alleged finding Janet Schueren, 33, of 1503 Kirkpatrick Homes, on the ground crying and screaming.

Dennis R. Schueren, 22, of the same address, was standing over her and also screaming while trying to pick up the woman, reports said.

Officers learned the pair had been in a nearby tavern, where they allegedly began arguing and had been ejected. Both were uncooperative when talked to by police and were charged with disorderly conduct.

Janet Schueren was released during the weekend upon posting a $52 cash bond. Dennis Schueren was released earlier after he posted a cash bond in the same amount.

ARREST FOLLOWS BEATING

Soon Koo Song, 23, of 1633 Olive St. was arrested there for battery after his sister, Soon Hee Song, 19, was struck with fists about the head and arms. He was released on $52 bail.

Work, fine, probation

Probation of 18 months has been ordered by Associate Judge Edward Ferguson for Michael G. Collier, 27, of 204 Madison Ave., Madison, along with 100 hours of public service work, a $200 fine, $20 special costs and $95 court costs. Collier was charged in early 1984 with a burglary attempt and pleaded guilty March 23.

INVESTIGATING FIRE AT MADISON DWELLING

An arson team was investigating a fire early this week in a residence at 1685 Market St., Madison, where Madison firefighters extinguished a blaze at 4:15 a.m.

A neighbor reported a man came to his house and asked him to call the fire department. When police arrived smoke was pouring from all parts of the structure, but initially no fire was observed.

Madison Fire Chief Mike Macsek said later that the blaze appeared to have started around the furnace area in the basement. An investigation is continuing.

MS fund drive opens

Sunday, May 13, marked the official opening of the 1984 National Multiple Sclerosis Society Hope Chest Campaign. On that day, concerned men and women from the Gateway area chapter joined volunteers across the nation to begin ringing doorbells to collect money to provide services for those with multiple sclerosis locally as well as funds for worldwide multiple sclerosis research.

"This is appropriate," William Deemer, chairman, added, "because it is in the young adult years that multiple sclerosis symptoms most often strike first — young mothers just starting their families or young fathers just as they are getting established in their careers."

Multiple sclerosis is a debilitating and often disabling disease of the central nervous system. Symptoms vary in each individual, depending on the site of damage and range from mild to severe. It is estimated that an average of nearly 200 people are newly diagnosed with multiple sclerosis each week in the U.S.

"There are more than 2,500 people in the Gateway area with multiple sclerosis," Deemer said. He pointed out that among the services the chapter provides are information and referral, education, insight program, support groups, clinic, home visits, equipment loan closet, counseling and research.

The National Multiple Sclerosis Society is the only national voluntary health agency in the U.S. supporting research to find the cause of, cure for, and a means of preventing multiple sclerosis. For more information, interested persons may call collect 1-314-241-8285.

Cahokia Mounds offers 'hands on' training

For persons interested in archaeology, the Cahokia Mounds Museum Society is offering the opportunity to do "hands on" archaeology at Cahokia Mounds State Historic Site southeast of Horseshoe Lake. Cahokia Mounds was the largest prehistoric Indian community and mound complex in the United States and was continuously occupied for nearly 800 years (AD 700-1500).

Excavation will concentrate on following the defensive low wall, or stockade, and its several stages, as well as the numerous house and pit remains of the earlier occupants, through which the stockade traverses.

Participants need no prior experience in archaeology, just a genuine interest in this field and learning proper archaeological techniques under professional supervision. Students will work in the field learning surveying, excavation and mapping, and in the laboratory, washing, sorting and cataloging their artifact finds.

People of all ages, from 12 to 75, have participated in the past in the series of six two-week sessions offered throughout the summer. Students should be 18 or older, but 16 to 17-year-olds may join with parental permission. Younger students, 12 to 15 may work with a participating parent or adult.

Tuition for a two-week session is $100. Special rates can be arranged for families or groups or those who can only come for one week. There are no room or board facilities, but a primitive campsite is available and several motels are nearby.

The six two-week field school sessions will begin on Mondays, June 4, June 18, July 2, July 16, July 30 and Aug. 13. Work days are Mondays through Fridays.

For more information and applications, interested persons may write to the Cahokia Mounds Museum Society, Box 382, Collinsville, Ill., 62234, or call 344-5268.

Injured officer

"If I wouldn't have had the vest on, I know I wouldn't have survived the shots," said Dobson.

After the shots were fired, he spun around to return fire, slipped on some grass and fell backward, head first down the stairs. "The vest really helped to protect me as I was falling down the stairs, too," he said. "I've always worn a vest and I will wear it in the future, too," he said.

AFTER THE FALL, Dobson said he radioed immediately for help and was able to reach what he believed was a Granite City police dispatcher. "I said emergency, emergency, emergency! Railroad officer shot. Please send police and ambulance. Over," said Dobson. He said that the dispatcher responded 10-4, but 20 minutes later, no help had arrived.

At this point, Dobson called Granite City again, but got no response.

Granite City police said the only document available this morning showed the call was received at 12:50 a.m. Wednesday and Madison police were notified.

WAS LAYING at the bottom of the stairs for about 45 minutes before anyone found me. I heard my relief man come in to check the building, but he didn't see me right away, so I fired a distress shot. When he saw me, he said, 'Man, Joe, we've got to get you some help!'

Dobson said the police were called and five different departments responded this morning. "Everybody was there: Venice National City, Madison County, Madison Police, and the Terminal Railroad police departments were all there," he said.

After police arrived, Campbell Ambulance Service was called and according to Dobson, did not arrive until 30 St. Elizabeths later. "One of the police officers said, 'Where is that ambulance, haven't they gotten here yet?'

Ed Morton, of Campbell Ambulance Service said his company received the ambulance call at 1:07 a.m. Wednesday morning. He said they arrived on the scene at 1:17 a.m. "People don't understand that when they're hurt, two minutes seem like an hour," he said. "I'm tired of people saying my ambulance took 40 minutes when it took 10."

Dobson said when he got to the emergency room at St. Elizabeth Medical Center, he looked at the clock on the wall. "It was 2 a.m.—I couldn't believe it took that long."

DOBSON SAID today that he suffered a back injury from the gunshots, even though they did not penetrate his vest. "The doctors told me that part of my vertebrae was disconnected and that one of the shot bruised the wall of my kidney," he said.

Dobson said he is able to walk, but "not fast." He said his doctor told him he would not be released for a week, but he said he is requesting to be transferred to Barnes Hospital in St. Louis later today.

"The really bad thing about this whole thing is that the railroad doesn't have a dispatcher to call in to, so that he knows your location," said Dobson. "If I would have been killed, not telling how long it would have taken for someone to find my body."

Funeral services held for Alton B. Shipman

Alton B. Shipman, 57, Collinsville, died Sunday, May 13, 1984, at Oliver Anderson Hospital, Maryville. The funeral took place Wednesday at a Fairview Heights mortuary, with burial at National Cemetery, Jefferson Barracks, Mo.

BEATEN, HOSPITALIZED

2 keep jobs

written legal opinion be submitted to the board by the time of its scheduled meeting of school buildings May 25. Schooley later in the evening located the particular portion of the board's meeting records and said rescinding the job combining plan was carried out properly.

On the separate issue of a possible temporary job suspension, no one but Partney indicated readiness to take that step.

Partney mentioned a school employee and said "a very serious act" being called to the board president's attention.

"I CONSIDER (it) a gross impropriety," Partney related.

He said the employee's wife bid on two pieces of school property, that the board rejected the high offers and that the properties were sold to other parties.

Partney assailed the man and wife for failing to "come forward and disclose who they were and what they would have had for the property."

He continued, "It is interesting that the parcels 'were the two proposed to be sold to the board and employees had access to special information concerning those particular pieces of property."

PARTNEY TOLD THE BOARD that in one instance the property was discussed at board meetings with employees present, that the eventual purchaser had a special interest in the tract, and that the buyer obtained an appraisal which was shown to members of the board "with access by employees."

The interest of the purchaser of the other parcel "was well known to the members of the board and its employees," Partney said, adding:

"Although it cannot be established as a fact, the opportunity to obtain the tract and make a profit by the sale to those parties with a special interest in obtaining that particular parcel was certainly present."

"AN EMPLOYEE of this district with access to information limited in its disclosure to the general public would have, certainly, a favored position."

The board president said he discussed the issue with an attorney for the School of Management Foundation of Illinois.

Partney, who checked with his private attorney and with the school attorney. He did not say whether any of the three lawyers agreed with the stand he was taking.

THE PRESIDING OFFICER reported learning that an Illinois law regulating school districts of 100,000 to 500,000 inhabitants bans an employee from buying any real estate or property belonging to the district.

He acknowledged that the Granite City school district does not have that large a population.

Partney concluded that "while there may be no violation of the statute which is punishable as a crime, it is clear to me that this impropriety is sufficient to justify action by this board."

Thereafter, Partney move to temporary suspension "the employee without pay, pending a full investigation of this matter by the Illinois Association of School Boards."

HE PLACED particular emphasis on his feeling that the amount of the high bids may have been closely related to the figures in other bids, and his assumption that there may have been some way of ascertaining the contents of sealed proposals.

After Partney's statement, Attorney Schooley said there is no counterpart statute affecting school systems of the size of Granite City.

Some of those who were present speculated that the district's current population might be 70,000 or 75,000 and Sup. B.J. Davis said it may be between 50,000 and 60,000.

THE SUPERINTENDENT said there appears to be no ban on an employee bidding on real estate of the district.

Partney reiterated his belief that the same principle affecting school districts of 100,000 or more population ought to apply to smaller districts.

Funding

ty is exploring other avenues to obtain the necessary funds. One of those avenues is a partial refinancing of the existing debt at the treatment plant. Schuler said that this would be plausible, since the regional improvements would "renovate the plant in last 20 years" and there are only nine years left on the bond payments for the purchase of the plant.

He said the city has not worked out anything "solid" yet on the financing of the grant, but that the city is "talking to some people" about possible answers.

Alderman Paul Fisk reminded council members that the improvements being made at the treatment plant will have to be made, even if the plant does not become regional. The improvements had been mandated in an earlier report by the United States Environmental Protection Agency.

SCHULER AGREED, saying, "The council has to remember that the plant is 11 years old. It's bound to have parts that are worn out. One also has to remember that the plant was built at the beginning of the treatment plant era and some of the equipment has had a few kinks in it."

"But I think (when the regionalization occurs) that Granite City is going to be paying a lot less for their sewage treatment than any other community within a thousand miles of here."

The two resolutions authorize the city to execute a grant between the city and the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA) and gives permission to the mayor to sign all grant application forms and documents pursuant to the Federal Water Pollution Control Act.

ALTHOUGH PASSAGE of these resolutions moved the city two steps closer to finishing requirements for the regional grant, IEPA representative James Leineke said yesterday that the city still must file some documents.

According to Leineke, that city must deliver a certificate that says there is local financing available for the regional design work on the plant. Leineke said this amount if money is minimal compared to the construction costs.

He also said that the city must execute an agreement with a consulting engineer firm for the design work.

LEINEKE SAID the deadline for meeting these grant requirements has been extended by the IEPA until July 1, 1984.

McDonald's seeks downtown location

McDonald's Restaurant is seeking a lot in the downtown Granite City area after bidding unsuccessfully with Granite City Steel to purchase the former D&J Mobil service station property at the southwest corner of 20th Street and Madison Avenue.

"We are looking at a couple of pieces of property in that area," confirmed David Embry, franchise operator of 12 McDonald's restaurants in this region.

EMBRY EXPLAINED that McDonald's desired the lot at 20th Street and Madison Avenue, but could not work out the details. "We negotiated with Granite City Steel, but they never moved on it, they were not interested in selling and then the merger with the Japanese definitely squashed it," he added.

The underground gasoline tanks were removed from the property last week and a GC Steel spokesman said current plans are to use the lot for parking for the office building directly across Madison Avenue.

Meanwhile, McDonald's continues to seek a downtown location for a new restaurant. "We would love to be in that area," Embry said.

A GC spokesman said that while the 20th-Madison lot is likely to be used initially as a parking lot, a committee has been appointed to study possible uses for it in the future.

RESTAURANT INCIDENT RESULTS IN CHARGES

Called to Charlie's Restaurant, 3120 Nameoki Road, at 2:50 a.m. Tuesday, officers learned that John S. Hartline, 24, of 3814 Lake St., Pontoon Beach, allegedly was concealing some eating utensils in his socks and had returned some to the manager, but then declined to leave the restaurant.

Hartline allegedly continued to argue after police arrived and was charged with criminal trespass to property. Enroute to a squad car, it was alleged a fork fell from the man's clothing and he was charged with misdemeanor theft.

An active warrant alleging battery also was on file at police headquarters, reports said. Hartline was released, pending a hearing, after posting a $606 cash bond.

ARREST AFTER SECOND CALL

Robert E. Macke, 27, of 1642 Cleveland Blvd., was charged with disorderly conduct early this week after police alleged finding him standing in the street near his home yelling and screaming. Officers had warned Macke about 2 1/2 hours earlier when they were called to a disturbance at the same location.

Fifth, Sixth Graders 600 take part in Sports Days

GRANITE CITY — Approximately 600 youths turned out for the 36th Annual District 9 Sports Days Tuesday and Wednesday at Maryville School.

"The weather was great and so was the competition," said co-chairman Pat Maxey of Niedringhaus School. "It was a great success. Everyone outdid themselves and we're all grateful to Barbara Kerch for starting it 26 years ago."

Sports Days 1984 were held on two days again this year, the girls on Tuesday and the boys on Wednesday.

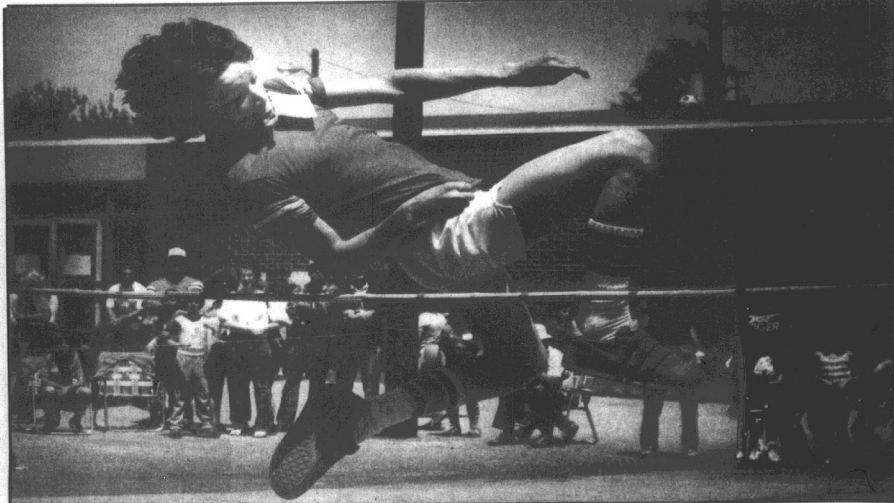

day. All fifth and sixth graders, the young athletes competed in the shuttle run, the high jump, the standing long jump, the 50-yard dash, the softball throw, the 500 yard run and relay team competition.

Perhaps the most exciting competition was that of the high jump as Jim Harris of Webster School broke a 26-year-long record by clearing 5-feet 1-inch, bettering the old record of 5 feet.

Assisting Pat Maxey as co-chairman in the annual event was Norm Grote.

FLYING HIGH. Jim Harris of Webster School displays the kind of form which captured him a first-place finish in the high jump during Wednesday's district wide Sports Day at Maryville Elementary School. Harris, who competed in group three competition, successfully cleared 5-feet 1-inch before bowing out at 5-feet 2-inches. Harris' achievement, incidentally, is a new Sports Day record, beating the old mark of 5 feet.

In Baseball Twinbill Warriors sweep Comanches; finish 2nd in GEC.

By AL BARNES

for the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Early this week, the Granite City High School baseball team performed the way that their coach, Bob Stegemeier, had hoped that they would all season, but haven't.

Preseason information throughout southwestern Illinois had pegged the Granite City High Warriors as potentially one of the very best teams in the area.

Instead, the Warriors' early play made everyone less than happy even though they did have stretches where they show signs of their earlier promise.

Now, very much getting their acts together, Stegemeier and his charges are cruising along at a greatly improved pace.

IN A PAIR of games Monday, both of which had been rained out earlier this season, Granite City High's baseball team looked very much a winner, and demolished the Cahokia High Comanches, 10-1, in the opener and then romped to a 3-1 triumph in the night cap.

The twinbill sweep over Cahokia ran the Warriors' record to 12-14 and gave them victories in 10 of their last 14 games. The victories secured a second-place finish in the Gateway East Conference for the Warriors. Belleville Altooff secured the conference championship last night by defeating Edwardsville 8-6.

THE ALTOFF Crusaders finish the season with a GEC record of 5-1. Granite City is second with a 4-2 slate, while Edwardsville is currently 2-4. Cahokia's pair of losses to the Warriors drops its record to 1-5 and puts the Comanches in the basement of the conference standings.

Tuesday night, however, the Warriors travelled to Bethalto and lost a real heartbreaker, 2-1, to the Eagles (see related story).

In Monday's double victories, Stegemeier got great pitching and hitting from his charges.

In the leadoff 10-1 win, senior right hander Sam Tate was never in any danger as his teammates' bats racked up three Comanche hurters. Tate fanned six and walked none, but appeared to weaken just a bit in the fourth inning and gave up a pair of doubles that gave the losers their only tally.

GRANITE CITY's big bats in the first game against Cahokia was owned by right fielder Gerry Booker who went 3-for-4 and drove in three runs and junior first baseman Pat Cathey who put together a perfect day at bat, a pair of singles and double in three trips up.

The Comanches coach, Burt Clemons, wisely walked Cathey in the sixth frame. In the first game, the losers' shortstop, Ed Luederman, had a perfect 3-for-3 against Tate.

In Monday's second game it was Mark Bowen's turn to shine on the mound for Granite City and the sophomore right hander came through for his second victory of the season as he limited the visitors to only two hits and an unearned run.

BOWEN was credited with three strikeouts and walked two, but pitched hitless ball for three full innings. Cahokia's rightfield, Keith Sanders, spoiled Bowen's bid for a no-hitter when he led off the fourth inning with a single.

Bowen gave up his second and final safety to Ed Luederman in the sixth after two were out.

Randy Thurman and Tom Adamitis paced Granite City's hitting attack in Monday's second game as both went 2-for-3. Cathey ran his streak at bat in the two games to 4-for-5 as he doubled in the fourth to give the Warriors their first run.

In Baseball Action

Civic Memorial slips past Warriors

BETHALTO — After a disastrous 2-10 start early in the season, the Granite City High varsity baseball team came within an inning and a half of coming within a game of .500 Tuesday.

But it wasn't meant to be. Posting a small 1-0 lead going into the bottom of the sixth inning, Civic Memorial's Greg Cherry slapped a long shot to deep center field scoring teammates Ron Harmon and Mark Schultz.

The Warriors managed to strand Cherry at third, but, as it turned out, the Eagles didn't Cherry's run anyway. Civic Memorial won 2-1.

A PITCHER'S duel, the Warriors broke the 0-0 deadlock in the fifth inning when Scott Grote batted in Greg Ehlers to put the Warriors on the board.

Getting the win for the Eagles was knuckle baller Randy Eaton who retired nine Warriors on strikeouts. Dan Whitsell, who struck out four, was tagged for the loss.

The loss dropped the Warriors record to 12-15 while Civic Memorial High reached the .500 mark with the pairing, 10-10.

Hits were nearly even with a total of seven in the contest. Granite City managed three to Bethalto's four.

PRIOR to Tuesday's game, Warrior coach Bob Stegemeier met with other coaches in the Collinsville Regional. As a result of that meeting, the Warriors were seeded second behind top seeded East St. Louis Senior. The Flyers were 11-4 at the time of the seeding meeting while the Warriors, as mentioned, were 12-14.

East St. Louis Lincoln picked up the third seed with a record of 11-3. Cahokia (9-13) was seeded fourth while host Collinsville (7-16) is seeded fifth.

Despite the Warriors' current losing record, Stegemeier said he was pleased that the Warrior were seeded higher than Lincoln, a team with a winning record.

"THERE are three things that coaches take in mind when seeding teams," Stegemeier said. "First the season record. Then the quality of competition and lastly the number of returning lettermen."

"Evidently the voting coaches felt like we're better than our record indicates," Stegemeier said.

In the first round of the regional Collinsville will meet Cahokia at Cahokia on Thursday, May 24, at 4 p.m. The winner of that game will meet top seeded East St. Louis Senior at Collinsville's Fletcher Field on Saturday, May 26, at 10 a.m. in game two.

FOLLOWING that game, the Warriors will take to the field to meet third-seeded Lincoln. That game, game three of the regional, will begin at 12:30 p.m.

The championship game which is slated for Monday, May 28, at noon at Fletcher Field, will pit the winners of game two and three. The winner of that game will advance to the Granite City High School Sectional. Tournament which begins on June 2.

This Sunday Inter-City League begins 54th year

GRANITE CITY — Last year when the Corral Liquor Cowboys dropped out of the Inter-City Baseball League, many people were questioning the future of the 53-year-old league.

Baseball enthusiasts feared that the league, one of the oldest in this area, would not survive. By the end of the season last year there were only four teams remaining in the league — McDonalds and the Chiefs from Granite City and Maryville and Edwardsville.

TO MAKE matters worse, the Edwardsville Nationals, last year's league champion, announced that it would not participate in the 1984 season. Faced with total collapse of the league, officials began searching for new teams to fill league.

The response was phenomenal. League President Earl Schardan has announced that five new teams will join the league in time for this summer's play, bringing the total number of teams in the league to eight.

IN ADDITION to McDonald's, the GC Chiefs and Maryville, Cahokia, East Alton, Brooklyn, O'Fallon and another team from O'Fallon, the Metro Wildcats, will complete this Sunday when the league kicks off its 54th season.

"We're obviously very happy with the number of teams we have this year," Schardan said Tuesday. "Especially since we're dedicating the season to Ollie Miller."

Miller, a former president of the league, managed teams for many years before he died last year at 79.

AS IN years past, all games will be played on Sunday unless interrupted by foul weather. One change which will take place this year is that games will start half an hour later, at 1:30 p.m. instead of 1 p.m.

First week pairings include an exclusive Granite City matchup as McDonalds will meet the Granite City Chiefs at Wilson Park diamond one.

The Cahokia Braves will meet square off against the Metro Wildcats while the East Alton will travel to Brooklyn to meet the Robins. The final pairing this first week will pit O'Fallon Merchants against the Maryville Red Sox.

League play consists of 14 weeks of consecutive play with the playoffs beginning on Aug. 26.

Prairie Games soccer tryouts at SIUE June 2, 3

EDWARDSVILLE — Tryouts for this region's soccer teams in the 1984 Prairie-State Games are scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, June 2 and 3, at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. It has been announced.

According to local soccer enthusiast Ruben Mendoza who is also coach for the girls' and women's divisions in the Games, tryouts will be at Cougar Field from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. both days.

Persons may try out for four teams, two male and two female. The two male divisions are for boys high school age and younger and men over high school age. The same divisions will exist in the women's divisions.

Recently graduated high school seniors will compete in the high school division.

Mendoza, who operates a sporting goods store at Soccer for Fun, has applications for soccer applicants at his business. Fees for the games are $10 and may be paid on the day of the tryouts.

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville soccer coach Bob Guelker will lead the men's team, while Mendoza and Norman Seim will instruct the girls. Willi Seim, soccer enthusiast, is the area soccer coordinator.

Senior Olympian

HOOP SHOOT. Senior Olympian Bill Hayes of Granite City aims, shoots and watches as the ball heads toward its mark. Hayes was one of several Granite Cityans who competed in the Sixth Annual Southwestern Illinois Regional Senior Olympics at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville last Friday and Saturday. Hayes, who made five of 15 attempts from the stripe, competed in golf putt, the mile run and a swimming event as well as the free-throw shoot.

In Softball This Weekend

Old Timers, champions square off

By AL BARNES
for the Press-Record

Thirty-two former softball stars of the 1952 era will divide into two squads and play a five-inning game. The Old Timers game will be played between the season opening game of Corral Liquors, formerly the Granite City Cowboys, and the defending Illinois state champion Nokomis team that is scheduled for 2 p.m.

The Old Timers, which is built largely around the legendary 1952 Pontoon Beach A. C. team, won many state titles and always held its own with the best in the St. Louis metropolitan area.

From the '52 Pontoon Beach AC club there will be: Jerry Jackson, Willie Harbey, Roger Wells, Jack Scarborough, Sr., Boyd Presley, Charlie Briskie, Babe Amelung, Gus Lignoul and Al Kutzera.

On the ex-stars on the two squads and Granite City mayor, Paul Shuler, Ron Dillard, Art Borchers, Ray Hoffman, Jack Hinterser, Ron Hommy, Jerry Jackson, Whitey McCormis, Charlie Metzler, Les Thompson.

Leo Six, Walter (Shang) Greathouse, Ralph Burnett, Jim Cox, George Sykes, Dewey Melton, Dink Morris, Bob Stegemeier, Pete Robinson, Marv Brokaw, Jerry Parmley, Norm Grote, Ray Huff, Ross Halbrook, Jug Harrison, Sat

Gene Cox will manage one of the squads.

Girls' Softball

GCHS' lates victims Triad, Madison

By PAULA WISE
of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — The Granite City High School girls' softball team made it two wins in a row Wednesday as they defeated Triad by the score of 18-6. Tuesday, the Warriors defeated Madison 20-6.

The wins gave the Warriors seven victories for the season and a definite edge as they head into regional competition. Granite City will travel to Bunker Hill Monday to face the Minutemen in the first round of the tournament.

Warrior Coach Jim Davis feels his team may be a surprise to some of the teams as they enter regional play.

"I'm pretty pleased with the way we've been playing," said Davis. "We've been playing pretty competitively. I think if any team looks past us they may be in for some trouble."

Davis is especially happy with the performance of junior pitcher Michelle Morgan who registered both wins this week.

"She is really starting to come around," said Davis. "You can see in her face now she knows she can throw it over. She just needs to work a little more on her velocity."

Davis was also complimentary of his team's new found run scoring ability. Although the Warriors have been getting hits from throughout the lineup a great deal of the punch has come from three players, Vicki Smith, Lisa Lilley and Kim Mushill.

In Wednesday's game with Triad, Smith led the team with four hits. Mushill had three hits, and Lilley added a home run.

"These girls have been hitting the ball on the nose all season long, but sometimes they would be caught," Davis said of his two, three and four hitters. Lately it seems like they're finally starting to fall in for them."

Another player that seems to have found a spot in the Warrior starting lineup is leadoff batter and third baseman, Anne Puhse.

The leadoff position, which Davis struggled to fill throughout the season, has finally been filled by Puhse.

In Tuesday's game against Madison, Puhse came away with two singles and an RBI. In Wednesday's game she launched a three-run double in the top of the seventh to cap an eight run Warrior rally.

Overall Davis said it had been a team effort which has finally led the Warriors to success. Although disappointed early in the season with the Warriors record Coach Davis can now see his team coming around.

"I was a little bit discouraged at one point, but right now I'm pretty pleased with the way the girls are playing," said Davis.

"I've noticed certain situations where the girls know what to do now without me having to tell them. They are really starting to think softball."

In Columbia Regional

Wildcats end Trojans' season, 5-3

By CHARLIE SKAER
of the Press-Record

BROOKLYN — The Lovejoy Wildcats eliminated the Madison Trojans in the opening round of the Columbia Regional, winning a 5-3 contest Tuesday.

Although the Wildcats closely guarded a lead they gained in the second inning, Madison staged a comeback in the top of the seventh. With runners on second and third and two men out, Madison's Nathan Young represented the winning run at the plate. On a one-and-one count, Young knocked a long ball to center that hung up just long enough for outfielder Kenny Douglas to catch, ending the ballgame.

"I thought it was coming down," said Madison coach Ron Crader. "It looked like it had a chance."

The 5-3 defeat was Madison's third loss this season to Lovejoy. The first contest, riddled with errors, ended with a 15-12 score. Both teams cleaned their defensive game in the second game, which Lovejoy won 4-2.

Errors that had been plaguing Madison throughout the year were absent during Tuesday's game, although Crader also saw too few hits.

"When we're playing good defense, we don't have the bats," said Crader, whose team had five hits during Tuesday's game. "We just didn't get it together this season."

THE TROJANS finished the year at 3-14, while Lovejoy improved its record to 6-11. The Wildcats will face top-seeded Dupo today in the semifinals of the regional.

Senior Fred Smith turned in one of his better performances of the year for Madison, striking out eight while giving up five walks. The Wildcats tagged Smith for seven hits.

Third baseman Percy Calvert scored what proved to be Lovejoy's winning run. With two men out in the fourth, Calvert walked to first and later stole second. He advanced to third on a single by catcher Kenny Douglas. When Madison catcher

John Browley unsuccessfully tried to nail Douglas stealing second, Calvert used some smart baserunning to speed across the plate.

MADISON took the initial lead of the game in the second when third baseman Mark Succarotte scored on a wild pitch by Lovejoy's Ronald Bates. It was one of few mistakes by Bates, who walked three and struck out 11.

"He knows all the Madison players, which is why he started today," said Lovejoy coach Carlos Starford. "There was peer pressure on him to perform. He pitched a fine game and proved himself."

Madison didn't hold onto the 1-0 margin for long, as the Wildcats scored two in the bottom of the second. Lovejoy added two more runs in the fourth and one in the fifth, while Madison scored one run in the fifth and sixth innings.

Lovejoy coach said he's looking forward to today's matchup against Dupo, although his team lost to Dupo 11-0 earlier in the season.

"We've just got to go out there and play our best," said Crader. "They really aren't that tough."

Madison, GCHS Represented Girls' State Meet Friday

BLOOMINGTON—Nine returning individual event champions are among the 1,151 athletes from 357 Illinois High School Association (IHSA) member schools who will compete this weekend in the 12th annual Girls State Final Track Meet at O'Brien Stadium on the campus of Eastern Illinois University in Charleston.

Preliminaries in 15 of the 16 individual events (the 3200 meter run is final only on Saturday) will be conducted in Class A and Class AA competition Friday. The Class A field event prelims begin at 8:30 Friday morning and the running events at 9 a.m.

Schools with enrollments of 694 or less are in Class A. The large school (Class AA) field event prelims start Friday at noon. Running event prelims are scheduled to get under way at approximately 12:30 p.m.

Finals in all 16 events will be conducted Saturday. The traditional opening ceremony being at 10:30 a.m. Field event finals start at 11 a.m. Saturday, with the first running event final scheduled for 11:30 a.m. Season tickets priced at $5 each will be sold at O'Brien Stadium Friday. Single-session tickets are priced at $3. Eastern Illinois University policy prohibits spectators from bringing coolers, etc., into the stadium.

In both Class A and Class AA competition one of the returning champions is a double event champion. In Class A, Susie Tuffey of Peoria (Bergan) returns with the best sectional qualifying mark in both the 800 and 1600 meter runs. In Class AA, Melissa Straza, now of Bloomington High School, but a freshman last year at Urbana (H.S.), returns to defend her titles and state records in the 1600 and 3200 meter runs. Straza has lost only one race this year—the 1600 meter run in the Urbana Relays to Tuffey.

Other Class A returning champions are Julie Goben of Viola (Winola) in the high jump; Mindy Bollman of Tampico in the 200 meter hurdles; and Cheryl Westendorf of Teutopolis in the 200 meter dash. Other Class AA returning champions are: Jerlene Cummings of Decatur (MacArthur) in the high jump; Shelly McBride of Crete-Moneo in the 800 meter run; Veronica Gooch of East St. Louis (St.) in the 400 meter run; and Karen Lewis of Chicago (South Shore) in the 200 meter dash.

In the race for team titles, defending Class AA champion East St. Louis (Lincoln) may have a lock on a third straight large state title.

Coach Nino Fennoy's troops project to 69 points based upon sectional qualifying marks. Such is not the case for three-time defending Class A champion Peoria (Bergan). The Trojans, behind Tuffey, project up to 33 points, while perennial bridesmaid Mahomet-Seymour may have enough depth in qualifiers to dethrone Bergan. Mahomet-Seymour projects to 35 points.

The breakdown of schools and qualifiers is as follows: Class A has 564 athletes from 189 different schools competing. Class AA has 587 athletes from 168 different schools competing.

From the Quad-Cities area, (Madison and Granite City High) girls will be competing in five events. From Madison, Regina Banks will run in the 100 meter hurdles. Also qualifying from Madison were the 800 meter relay team and the 800 meter medley relay team.

From Granite City High, Lora White and Debbie Brandt will both make the trip to Charleston this weekend. Wiser qualified for the state meet by finishing second in the 3200 meter run while Brandt finished fifth in the discus throw.

GCHS hosts tennis sectional

GRANITE CITY—Persons seeking post-season sports action this weekend will not have to go as far as the Illinois State Girls' Track Meet in Charleston, nor will they have to go as far as the boys' sectional meets in Red Bud and Belleville.

Beginning Friday at two locations in Granite City, Granite City High School will host the Illinois High School Tennis Sectional. Play will begin on Friday at 2:30 p.m. with singles action at Wilson Park and doubles action at the high school courts on Grand Ave.

ACTION will resume on Saturday at 9 a.m. with semifinal and finals action at Wilson Park. The champions and their runners up will advance to the Illinois State Tennis Tournament next weekend in Arlington Heights, a Chicago suburb.

The state tournament begins on Thursday at 2 p.m. and will run through Friday before the championships are played on Saturday afternoon.

The Warriors, who finished their season Tuesday with a shutout victory over Collinsville, 7-0, and are now 10-3 on the season, will send a total of six athletes into post-season action.

DAVE LIPE, the Warriors' first singles player, will meet Kirby Lacy of Jerseyville in the first round while his teammate, Jeff Rush, will meet Seenu Sarma, also of Jerseyville, in second singles competition. In doubles, the Warriors will field two teams. In first doubles, seeded Matt Sheridan and Robbie Lombardi will receive a first-round bye while their teammates, Jerry Lakin and Dave Warfield, will meet Roxana's Brian Haug and Mark Batson in second doubles.

BMX races this Saturday

Bicycle Moto Cross races will resume this Saturday, May 19, at the Collinsville Bicycle Park at 515 Johnson Hill Road in Collinsville.

BMX racing, as it is often referred, is growing in popularity and many Quad Cityans are actively participating in the sport, said BMX enthusiast Curtis Champion.

Racing will begin at 2 p.m. Saturday following registration which begins at noon and lasts until 1:15 p.m. Registration is $5 which includes insurance and cost of the trophies.

According to Champion, the Collinsville Bicycle Park is one of the country's oldest sanctioned National Bicycle League courses. Approximately 1,100 feet in length, the course has the capacity to accommodate several bikers simultaneously.

Primarily for youths, BMX cyclists will compete in three divisions—beginners, novice and expert. In addition to those three, most popular divisions, Champion said there is also a Big Wheel division for young children and an Over 35 year old (Cruisers) for adults.

Persons seeking further information about BMX racing and this Saturday's races should contact either Champion at 877-5407 or Henry Wilmoth at 877-2057.

Cloverview Club meets in Glen Carbon home

Mrs. George Knapp, of 101 North Lynn in Glen Carbon, hosted the Cloverview Garden Club with a 1 p.m. luncheon meeting, last week.

The following were in attendance: Mrs. Charles Gandola, Mrs. John Jenkins, Mrs. Robert McCauley, Mrs. W.C. McMurry, Mrs. Lawrence Melvin, President Mrs. B.C. O'Neill, Mrs. Lester Rhine, Mrs. Albert Taylor and a guest, Mrs. C.W. Genard.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. O'Neill with a club collect given by Mrs. Melvin.

It was announced that a $25 donation had been made to the Lincoln Memorial Garden in Springfield to be used toward their fund-raising drive. The club also received a thank you note from the National Council of the Garden Clubs of St. Louis, for their donation.

The Cloverview Garden Club also received an invitation to a Rose Luncheon to be given by the Edwardsville Garden Club on June 7 at Walton's Restaurant in Glen Carbon.

Attending the District 5 workshop in Maryville on May 4 were: Mrs. George Knapp, Mrs. Charles Gandola and Mrs. B.C. O'Neill. Awards were presented to various clubs.

At that workshop, Cloverview received a purple rosette for district and state achievements in 1983.

The program on Chives was given by Mrs. Lester Rhine who had on display a Chives plant.

She explained that chives are mostly of the northern hemisphere and is the smallest member of the onions family. They form clumps of one to two feet tall, and are perennial and can be grown both indoors and out.

The leaves are used in cooking for their mild onion flavor. Early in the summer small round, pinkish-purple flower heads appear on stalks above the foliage.

These produce small black seeds by summer's end that reseed themselves. Fresh or dried flower stalks make interesting floral arrangements and filler, and the flowers themselves are tasty and very attractive in salads, she added.

The June 12 meeting will be held at the Harold Brown Recreation Center on Pontoon Road and Franklin Avenue and will feature a noon a potluck luncheon.

President Mrs. William Lindsey of Chokolia Garden Club will have a program on flower arranging and miniatures, it was noted.

There seems to be a great deal of confusion among people injured on the job as to the nature of the benefits to which they are entitled. Generally speaking, an injured worker will have his medical and hospital bills paid by the employer. In addition, he is entitled to receive 50% of his gross average weekly wage while he is off. Finally, if the employee sustains a permanent injury to a particular part of the body, he is entitled to compensation for this loss of use.

Frequently the question arises as to what types of work injuries qualify for these benefits. Illinois law requires that the injury "arise out of" and be incurred "in the course of" the employment period. This means that the injury must occur within the hours the employee normally works and at a place where the employee can reasonably be expected to be found while working.

One important question arises when an employee leaves his employment for a short period of time to perform some non-employment related activity. The issue in these cases is whether the employee is covered by workmen's compensation benefits if he is injured during the period of time he is away from work.

Eagles Auxiliary feted at Mother's Day dinner

The Eagles Auxiliary was honored with a Mother's Day dinner by the Eagles Aerie at the Eagles Home, 2600 Madison Ave., attended by approximately 60 auxiliary members.

Prayer before the dinner was given by Harold A. Love, Aerie vice president, who also said: "There is no doubt in the minds of the men and the women that the auxiliary and the aerie have a great togetherness in their work with each other throughout the district and throughout the state, and when guests come to Granite City they always say they had the greatest time ever."

The tables were decorated with vases of carnations and a centerpiece of various spring flowers. Dinner was prepared by aerie members Chris VonNida, Bill Haudstet and Don Gray, and was served by their committee.

Gladys Freeman, the auxiliary president, was presented with a gift from the aerie by Randy Odom, aerie president, for the outstanding work she has done the past year. She then thanked the men for their cooperation with the ladies during her year as president.

Leona Delaloye, auxiliary mother for the 1983 year, was also presented with a gift from the aerie, and with the centerpiece of flowers. Each auxiliary officer was introduced and presented with a vase of roses by Randy Odom.

Odom introduced Jack Orwig, a visitor from Rossford, Ohio, Aerie No. 2532, who is planning on moving his family to this area.

After the dinner the regular auxiliary meeting was opened by Mrs. Freeman, with the pledge of allegiance to the flag led by conductor, Linda Bone.

Secretary Helen Frazier read the minutes of the previous minutes and a thank you note from Mrs. Delaloye for her birthday gift. Mrs. Frazier gave a report on the 8th Annual Auxiliary State Convention to be held in Quincy, Ill., June 7th through 10th, and she gave the agenda for the meetings, banquet, conferences and initiation of new state officers to be held. Special awards will be given to auxiliary presidents who close their year ahead of their membership performance of last year, she explained.

Visiting chairman, Ann Konopka, reported sending get well cards to Annie Reed and Cassie Hagnauer, who are in the hospital.

All members were reminded of the joint aerie and auxiliary initiation to be held on Sunday, June 3rd.

Helen Frazier read the secretary's report, and Leona Delaloye read the treasurer's report.

Conductor Linda Bone escorted Mrs. Delaloye to the altar, where she was presented with a mother's day gift from the auxiliary by Mrs. Freeman.

The attendance prize was presented to Sylvia Smurda, and the white elephant prize was won by Margaret Smith.

When the St. Louis Steamers run onto the field, Sandra Edwards is a special fan.

The 19-year-old Granite City Center student is one of the dancers for Steam Heat, the dance squad for the Steamers. Last summer, Miss Edwards tried out for, and made, a spot on the Steam Heat, the dance troupe for the St. Louis Steamers of the Major Indoor Soccer League. Although she had never had lessons, dancing was her hobby.

"WHEN I WAS A sophomore at Granite City South High School, I tried out for the Dixie Dolls, the pom-pom squad," Miss Edwards said. "I made it and was captain my senior year. Then I went to Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville for a year and made their pom-pom squad, the Cougar Stars."

She decided to try out for the Steam Heat when her boyfriend saw an ad for the tryouts in the paper last summer.

"I never saw the Steam Heat dance before I tried out," she said. "I saw them dance for the first time a few weeks ago when I could not make the game because of a late class. I got to the arena for the end of the game and saw them dance. We looked good!"

THE AUDITIONS were held at the Marriott Hotel in St. Louis. Over 100 women showed up for the two days of tryouts. Only 40 women, including Miss Edwards, made the squad.

"Most of the other women have 10 years or more of dance experience," she said. She works to keep that hard-earned place on the squad. The Steam Heat practice from 7 to 11 p.m. every Wednesday night at Parkway Central High School in St. Louis. They also practice from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Sundays.

"RAYMOND PARKS is our choreographer," Sandra said. "He shows his students in his dance studio how to do the steps and then they show us."

The squad performs at all the Steamers' home games at the St. Louis Arena. They usually do a pre-game routine, cheer the team when it comes out of the dressing room at the beginning of the game, do another routine at halftime and do another after the game if the Steamers win.

A highlight of the season for Sandra was the troupe's performance at the 5th MISL All-Star Game at the Arena last February. She is looking forward to performing for the MISL playoffs in the coming weeks.

WHEN THEY aren't at games, the Steam Heat can be found at benefits and special events. "One of our most exciting trips this winter was to the University of Missouri at Columbia," she said. "We danced at a televised basketball game."

"Last Christmas, we went to all the hospitals in St. Louis and visited each floor just to say 'Hi and Merry Christmas.'" This summer, the squad will be performing five shows a day at the Veiled Prophet Fair.

THE SQUAD ALSO dances at area malls and does promotions for their sponsor, the Pevely Dairy Co.

Miss Edwards enjoys the busy life. She certainly isn't on the squad for the money. Only 26 dancers are paid $15 each per game, so they take turns collecting pay. "It's really just a hobby," she said. "There really isn't anywhere for a dancer to make a living around here, but I enjoy it very much."

Sandra is an accounting major at GCC, an extension of Belleville Area College. She plans to go on and finish her bachelor's degree in business at a four-year school. But for now, she enjoys the dancing.

Presbyterians to study Revelations

"Silence in Heaven" will mark the beginning of a series of sermons based on texts from the Book of Revelation in the Nameoki Presbyterian Church. "There are some great texts in this book which are often buried by extreme and confusing interpretations of this last book in the Bible," stated Pastor Don Pierson. "We will try to lift these out of their obscurity and let them speak to our lives today," he added. The morning worship services begin at 10:45 a.m. "The public is invited to share in the worship and fellowship of our congregation," the pastor stated. Angelina Michelle, daughter of Mike and Judy (Grant) Manzo was baptized on Mother's Day, Sunday, May 13th. Present in the worship service during the service of baptism was Angelina's great-grandmother, Mrs. Fleeta Kenny. Mrs. Kenny is the oldest member of the Nameoki Presbyterian Church. Several other relatives were also present for the celebration, including Mr. and Mrs. Mike Manzo Sr.

Mrs. Ray (Judy) Hankins will be arranging for an inter-generational approach in the Sunday church school during the summer months. A "Summer Club" for children during the weekdays is also being planned. The Vacation Bible School will be conducted in July this year beginning on Monday, July 23rd.

The General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church will meet in Phoenix, Ariz., beginning May 28th. Mrs. Jo Ann Watts of the Nameoki Presbyterian congregation will be one of the commissioners. The commissioners are elected by the delegates to the Presbytery. Rev. Pierson will be a commissioner to the Synod of Mid-America meeting in Warrensburg on June 27-29th, and is the chairman of the Synod's nominating committee.

"A Look At Revelation" will be discussed in the 9:30 a.m. coffee hour and Bible study of the church beginning this Sunday, led by Pastor Pierson.

EXPAND MONSANTO PLANT
Monsanto Company announced last week it will build a new $18 million hydrogenation facility for rubber chemicals at its Krummich plant in Saugeat, Ill. Due to completion in early 1986, it will handle the final manufacturing step for Santolix antidegradants for rubber products.

Mitchell PTA announces final events of the year

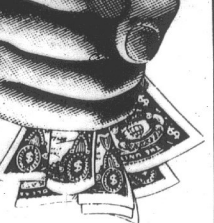

Final activities for students and parents of Mitchell School were announced at the May meeting of the Mitchell PTA. Unit conducted by President Nancy Kern.

Madison, Venice water hydrants being tested

Illinois American Water Co. will be flushing fire hydrants in the Madison and Venice area late this week and early next week, it was announced Wednesday. Since April 2, the company has been testing all of the fire hydrants in the quad-city area. Water pressure and gallons-per-minute flows are being measured.

The flushing may cause some discoloration in tap water in the immediate area of the flushing, officials said. The water is safe to drink and use and will return to normal within a few hours.

Matthew 9:2 . . . "Son, be of good cheer, thy sins be forgiven thee."

Do you know the thrill of knowing your sins are forgiven? Repulse if you do, for many today have not, nor will they ever know, what it means to be forgiven by God.

It's sad to say, but some are not aware that they need forgiveness! They do not live in the light, they do not covet, certainly, they never committed murder. They will find it hard to ask God to save them because they do not know they are lost! This is always the case, when we compare ourselves with others.

We must compare our lives to the holiness of Almighty God. There is none righteous, no one not.

The miracle of Christianity is that we ask God to forgive us our sins, and He does! He substitutes the righteousness of His Son, Jesus Christ in the place of our sin! If you believe this, you can be saved!

Ask Him. Today!

Group life insurance cost will be reduced for armed services

A reduction in premium costs for Servicemen's Group Life Insurance (SGLI) coverage will result in three million persons sharing savings of more than $47 million, the Veterans Administration announced this week. The reduced premiums are effective July 1.

The monthly premium for maximum SGLI coverage of $35,000 will be $2.80. Presently it is $4.06.

The decrease will result in annual savings of $33.2 million for active-duty military personnel and $14.2 million for ready reservists with full-time coverage.

More than 90 percent of eligible service members have SGLI protection. The program is supervised by the VA, but administered by the Prudential Insurance Co., as primary insurer and participated in by other commercial companies.

The program insures officers and enlisted members of the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps and Coast Guard and commissioned members of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration and the Public Health Service. Cadets and midshipmen at the four service academies and members of the ready reserves also are offered SGLI coverage.

The program began in 1965 with coverage limited to $10,000. Maximum coverage was subsequently increased by Congress on three occasions, most recently on Dec. 1, 1981.

Except for the government's responsibility for costs resulting from the extra hazards of military duty, SGLI is funded by service members' premium payments.

The premium reduction is the result of increased investment income and continuing favorable mortality experience. There is no change in the premium rate for retired reservists and active reservists with part-time coverage.

Grand Masters breakfast Sunday at Belle Clair

A rededication breakfast has been arranged for all the Master Masons in Illinois and the St. Louis area to take place at the Belle Clair Fairgrounds in Belleville, Sunday morning.

Representatives from the two local Masonic Lodges, Tripe 835 and Granite City 877, will attend the event.

"As a member of the Masonic fraternity, a Mason is oath-bound to build his character with the same care the ancient stonemasons constructed the great cathedrals centuries ago. But quality of character is not enough for a Mason. He believes in practicing his beliefs," a local Masonic spokesman explained.

The 3 1/2 million Masons in the United States give over $1,250,000 to charity every day. That's over $450,000,000 a year. Masons support hospitals for the severely burned and crippled children, clinic for young people with speech disorders, and research projects to find the causes of mental illness. Masonic groups also give aid to those who need eye operations and they provide retirement homes for needy veterans of the Fraternity and their wives and widows, he added.

According to the local Mason, there is nothing secret about Freemasonry and the Masons in the United States are not members of a secret society. Masonic Temples are more often than not prominent landmarks in most communities.

Some 14 presidents of the United States have called themselves Masons, as well as 18 vice-presidents and five chief justices of the U.S. Supreme Court and many others.

Will Rogers, Simon Bolivar, Robert Burns, several Kings of England, Rudyard Kipling, Voltaire and nine astronauts are a few of the well-known men with a common bond to Freemasonry.

Among the U.S. presidents listed as members of the Masonic Order are, John Adams, Andrew Jackson, James Polk, James Garfield, James Buchanan, Andrew Johnson, William McKinley, Theodore Roosevelt, Howard Taft, Warren Harding, Franklin Roosevelt, Harry Truman and Gerald Ford, the Granite City Mason noted.

MAC parade in Mitchell Saturday

The Mitchell Athletic Club and Mitchell Volunteer Fire Department will conduct its annual parade Saturday, May 19, at 1 p.m. The parade will start at Mitchell School and end at the MAC athletic fields.

The crowning of the queen and her attendants will be a highlight of the parade. American Legion Post 307 will supply the Color Guard, followed by State Sen. Sam Vadalabene, Sheriff Emil Toffant, the Granite City High School Band, Pom Pom's and Drill Team, Mitchell Fire Department Equipment, the Shrine Rolling Nobles and Hillbilly Clan No. 39.

The queen and her court are: First

Attendant Michelle Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Davis, 1601 Pontoon Road.; Second Attendant Trina Pace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pace Sr., No. 4 Sunflower Court, and Queen Tera Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Thomas, 6 Violet Court, Pontoon Beach.

Contractors honor Vadalabene

State Sen. Sam M. Vadalabene (D-Edwardsville) has received an award from the Association of General Contractors of Illinois for outstanding achievement. A plaque was presented to Vadalabene in Springfield by Patrick J. Keely, president of the organization. In the presentation ceremonies, Vadalabene was cited for his hard work in securing passage of the 1983 Funding Act which provided state funds for large scale road construction and improvements in the Southern Illinois area.

In his response, Vadalabene said, "When I see work starting up on Main and Hillsboro Streets in Edwardsville, along with many other projects that are making highways more safe and convenient, I will think of this award. It also brings to mind the many jobs made possible for our citizens and the substantial state money going back into our economy.

"That is why I am going to keep up the fight for better roads and highways. We still have a long way to go. I accept the award in trust, grateful for its expression of confidence in me."
